Estonian Seaman Jumps K's Ship

NEW YORK (AP)—An Estonian sailor from Soviet Premier Khrushchev's own ship, the Baltika, fled the ship Monday while visiting the city with companions, and has requested political asylum.

He was identified as Victor Jaanimets, 29, an oiler on the ship which brought Khrushchev here for the U. N. General Assembly.

The Immigration and Naturalization Service said today Jaanimets "is presently in our custody in this building and will remain until his story is checked out and we determine that he is a bona fide political refugee."

In Washington the Justice Department said no decision has been reached as yet on the matter of granting asylum to Jaanimets.

Department officials said, "his present status is that of an alien who illegally jumped his ship."

"I've had my fill of Khrushchev. He is a tyrant. Another Hitler," the Journal-American quoted him as saying in a copyright interview.

The Journal-American story carried the byline of George Carpozi Jr., with Richard Piperno, Don Vandergift and Frank Borsky. It quoted the defector as saying: "I have been in America only a short time but I have seen enough to know that all the bad things said about your country in the Soviet Union is propaganda. The Russian people are told nothing but lies, lies, lies."

Jaanimets said through an interpreter that "there are others on the ship who will try and get away now that I've escaped. Half the crew, maybe more, would walk off right now if they could, and never go back."

"I am lucky to have escaped and I never want to go back. I know what this means. My family, my mother and my three sisters and brother may suffer. They will suffer. The Russians will undoubtedly retaliate against them. But I cannot help it. I am fed up. I must live my own life at liberty. I am lucky to have escaped."

Khrush Beaten On Two Issues

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Premier Khrushchev, badly beaten again on two key issues in the United Nations, appeared ready today to abandon the drive to put over his disarmament plan at this session of the General Assembly.

Khrushchev has indicated that he wants to try again, in a special session, after inauguration of a new U.S. president.

Disarmament comes up for discussion in the Assembly this afternoon with the Soviet Union leading off. Khrushchev is slated to speak.

The Assembly Monday night voted by wide margins to include on its agenda for discussion the situation in Hungary since the 1956 rebellion and an airing of charges of Communist Chinese aggression against Tibet.

Communist delegates fought hard to keep both topics off the agenda, passionately arguing that both were "domestic affairs." But the vote went against them, 49-13 with 35 abstentions on Tibet. It was 54-12 with 31 abstentions on the Hungarian question.

The Assembly also agreed to discuss complaints of racial discrimination in the Union of South Africa and the Algerian question—a pair of Assembly perennials—and the Soviet charge that the U2 and other U.S. flights constitute aggression against the Soviet Union.

Delegates from Canada, the United States, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, the Ukraine and Albania are scheduled to follow Khrushchev in the disarmament discussion.

Ike's Brother Won't Appear

NEW YORK (AP)—Edgar Eisenhower, a lawyer and brother of President Eisenhower, said today he is declining to appear at a Washington inquiry into government grain storage policies because he has no connection whatsoever with the situation.

Eisenhower professed himself mystified by the invitation from Rep. L. H. Fountain, D-N.C., chairman of the investigating subcommittee.

Fountain did not state any reason except to say that Eisenhower's name "likely would be mentioned and that he might care to testify."

caped," the article said. "I am not satisfied with the Soviet system. There is nothing but spying and oppression. In my own country, Estonia, and the other Baltic nations, Latvia and Lithuania which are under the heel of Soviet domination, Khrushchev is hated. You have seen him here at the United Nations and how he has behaved. Back home he is worse. He has power there. All of us are under his iron fist. There is no freedom anywhere. We listen to him talk and we don't believe him. He is a liar. He promises everything but gives us nothing. We despise him. He is another Hitler."

The New York Daily News said in a copyright story that Jaanimets escaped while in company of four fellow crewmen by going into a department store on the pretext of buying hair tonic and hurrying out another door.

The Journal-American quoted the sailor as giving this account of his escape in the presence of Alfred Anderson, the secretary-general of the Estonian Relief Committee of the United States, whom Jaanimets had begged for help in hiding him.

"We were ever allowed to go ashore alone. We always had to go ashore with another seaman, sometimes with several. When I left the ship around noon, I was in the company of Harry Simon. My instructions had been to watch Simon. And I'm sure Simon was ordered to keep his eyes on me."

"This is the system—spying. We must spy on each other. We must find out who is against the Soviet system and why. Every Soviet seaman plays the role of the spy. He must look for military objects, airdromes, and other intelligence data that can be useful to the Soviet government."

"When I left the ship with Simon, escape was uppermost on my mind. My leave was for five hours, until 5 o'clock. We walked along a busy street not too very far from the ship. "I don't remember the name or number of the street. We came to a restaurant and went in for something to eat. While we were at the table, I got up to go to the men's room. I was looking to see how I could get away."

"When I went into the men's room, I saw a door in back. I prayed it would open to my freedom. I went up and turned the knob. I opened it. It was another way out!"

"I ran like anything. Then when I thought I was safe, I started to walk. I got away from the neighborhood and walked into a saloon. There I met an American seaman (the seaman was identified as Bryan Quinn of the Seaman's Institute).

"I tried to tell him in my awful bad English that I was from the Khrushchev ship and made him understand my predicament. So the seaman went to the telephone book in the back of the saloon and looked up the Estonia House and telephoned there."

When Immigration and Naturalization Service officials here were notified, it was said, they directed that Jaanimets be brought to them.

The Journal-American said Jaanimets was whisked upstairs by officials for what turned out to be an all-night questioning session.

The newspaper said that from an unofficial source it was learned the immigration people may spin it Jaanimets out of the city until at least the Baltika sails, possibly by the end of the week, perhaps later.

Valeri Kravchenko, a Soviet consular official and a group of about 10 other persons from Washington arrived at the immigration office here shortly before noon and told newsmen: "We want to find out what happened."

Immigration officials declined to permit the press to interview or photograph the seaman until his status is determined.

"If we decide he is a bona fide political refugee and he himself wishes to talk, such notice will be given," said P. A. Esperdy, district director.

Nixon Talks Peace in Swing Through West

Receives Apparent Endorsement of Mormon President

EN ROUTE WITH NIXON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon is putting new stress on an old issue as he makes his bid for the winning of the West. Everywhere Nixon goes he talks peace, and every time he talks peace, he gets applause.

Nixon, encouraged by the reception and the apparent endorsement of a Mormon Church leader he got in Utah, moved on today to Albuquerque, N.M., and then to San Diego in an attempt to round up California's bloc of 32 electoral votes.

In Salt Lake City Monday Nixon got what sounded like the blessing of President David O. McKay of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

Two weeks ago McKay seemed unusually friendly to Sen. John F. Kennedy when he dropped by to pay his respects.

But Nixon got more than a friendly greeting.

"I told your competitor," McKay informed Nixon, "that if he is successful in November, we would be behind him. I say to you today that I hope you are."

Elated Utah Republicans who heard it regarded the statement as an endorsement, unprecedented in church history.

Republicans, who thought the state was leaning toward Nixon anyway, now figure that with the McKay statement Utah's four electoral votes are in the bag.

Both candidates have worked the peace issue in this campaign—naturally, they're both for it—but Nixon seems to put unusual stress on it.

In Salt Lake City in the huge Mormon Tabernacle, he again attempted to make the Republican party the party of peace.

Nixon said of the American people: "They can be forever grateful to Dwight D. Eisenhower that he got us out of one war that he kept us out of any others, and that there is peace without surrender in the world today."

The capacity crowd of 8,000 cheered.

Earlier, in Denver, he put it this way: "President Eisenhower has stood for peace. He's always been willing to go the extra mile, to negotiate, but he has also stood for principle, and that is what we must do—firmness without belligerence."

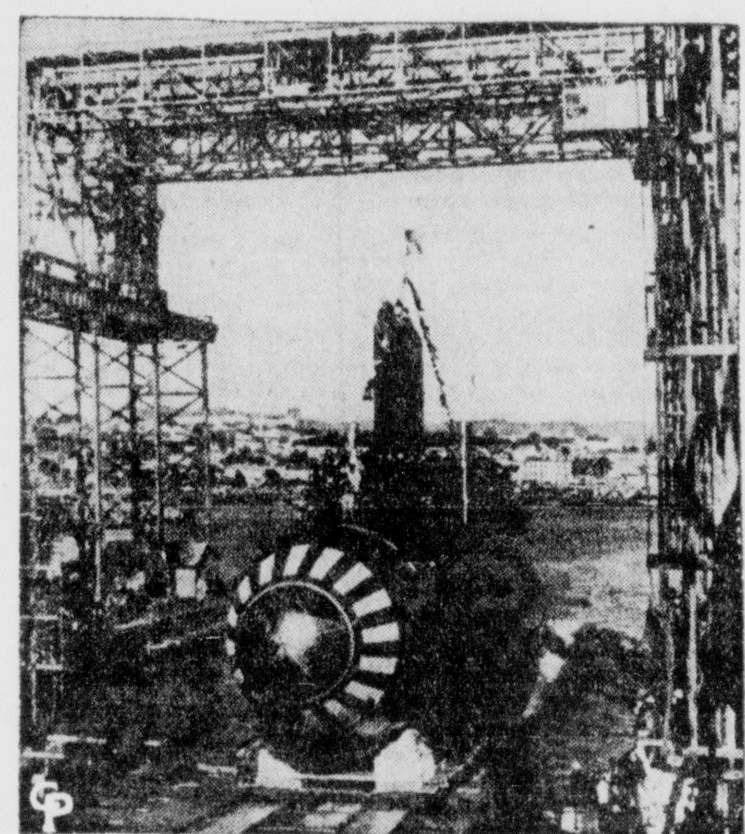

State Opens Bids For Bridge Jobs

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—October is "bridge month" as far as the State Highway Department is concerned. Most of the projects on which contractors' bids were opened today involved either bridge work or resurfacing.

There will be another bid-opening—the 20th of 1960—Oct. 25, and 10 of the 14 projects advertised are for major bridge construction.

Among the projects for which bids were received today were:

Athens-Gallia—Eight bridge improvements and realignments in the vicinity of Albany, Oak Hill and Gallipolis on Ohio 680, 325, 554 and 233. Apparent low bidder: Charles S. Razlaff Construction Co. of McArthur, $59,006. State estimate: $81,640. Completion: Sept. 1, 1961.

NAVY GETS 21ST A-SUB. — The U.S. Scamp, 21st of the atomic powered submarines built for the U.S. Navy slides down the ways at Mare Island, California Shipyard.

Community Fund Nears Goal

The Pickaway County Community Fund campaign passed the 85 per cent mark today.

As of noon a total of $27,550 has been collected and there is promise of more to come.

Goal for this year's drive is $32,300. Six agencies are supported by the fund. They are the Well-Child Clinic, Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Youth Canteen and Salvation Army.

Today Robert K. Harrod, campaign chairman, said that only a few reports remain to be made, but some of them involve a considerable amount of money. He declared that the goal is in sight if all last-minute calls are made. A last special effort is needed, Harrod said.

Guess Who is 'Giving 'em Hell' Deep in the Heart of Texas?

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Harry S. Truman, who says Texans "ought to go to hell" and farmers "ought to lose everything they've got" if they vote Republican, says he plans to talk about religion in politics today.

The former president rounds out a tempestuous two-day visit to Texas with a speech at the Heart O' Texas Coliseum in Waco tonight.

His schedule also calls for a visit with former Vice President John Nance Garner in Uvalde and a barbecue and conference with Texas Democratic leaders at Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson's LBJ Ranch.

Waco is one of the bastions of the Baptist Church.

Truman is a Baptist. A number of Texas Baptists have opposed the candidacy of John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, because he is a Roman Catholic.

"I'm going to talk to the Baptists like I talk to the farmers and laboring men," Truman said at a fund-raising dinner Monday attended by more than 800 persons who laughed, cheered and applauded delightedly when the ex-president ripped into Republicans.

Farmers and laboring men, he said in one of the many departures from his prepared text, "went haywire in 1952 and 1956 and I never get through telling 'em what I think of 'em."

"The damn farmers vote Republican," he said. "They ought to have their heads examined. They ought to have more than that—they ought to lose everything they've got if they do it again."

Truman said Vice President Richard M. Nixon "is against labor, against public housing, against public power. He is against adequate public health funds. I don't know what the hell he's for."

The negotiations are aimed at settling the six-year-old civil war in Laos. Because of this kingdom's strategic position, their outcome could affect the fate of all Southeast Asia.

During the brief proceedings Goldfine sat motionless and apparently inattentive. A marshal escorted him back to St. Elizabeth's Hospital where he underwent psychiatric tests last week.

Ohioan, Wife Victims Of Indiana Collision

RUSHVILLE, Ind. (AP) — An Ohio man, injured in a traffic accident which killed his wife, died here Monday.

Norval Inskeep, 50 Lockland Ohio, was hurt when his car hit a pickup truck last Friday at near-by Milroy.

Inskeep's wife, Beatrice, 50, was killed in the collision.

Kennedy Urges Bank Personnel Locked in Room

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy today urged that a fifth television-radio debate be staged between himself and Vice President Richard M. Nixon a few days before the Nov. 8 election.

The Democratic presidential nominee sent a telegram to the National Broadcasting Co. and the American Broadcasting Co. accepting their proposal for such a meeting.

He said he hoped the other networks would join in.

"In a political campaign of such importance as this one, I do not believe we should permit the last 18 days of the campaign to go by without one further exchange between the two candidates," he explained.

"In today's world, the issues shift quickly and I believe that a fifth appearance would fill the void left in the present scheduling. I hope that Mr. Nixon will join in this proposal."

Under the present schedule the fourth and last debate will be Oct. 21. The third is on Thursday night of this week.

Kennedy did not say so in his wire, but it was learned that the Democratic contender also would like another debate closer to the election because he feels he has done well in the first two.

Some Democratic leaders also have told newsmen they fear a Republican TV blitz in the last two weeks of the campaign after the fourth debate—a saturation campaign using films of Nixon and President Eisenhower which Democrats would be unable to counter because of lack of money.

A fifth debate was suggested last Saturday in a telegram to the networks by three Democratic senators who sponsored legislation making the unprecedented encounters possible. They suggested Nov. 2 as a possible time. NBC and ABC accepted their proposal Monday.

Kennedy planned to put in a quiet day without any public appearances in New York today after going through one of his most rugged campaign stunts.

Kennedy traveled about 1,700 miles in 18 hours on the vote trail Monday.

His day began at dawn at the Louisville, Ky., airport where he slept overnight in his plane. He flew to Georgia for a speech at the Franklin Roosevelt shrine, the Little White House at Warm Springs; went to Columbia, S.C., and talked from the statehouse steps; then hustled to Pittsburgh, for a whirlwind round of four appearances. He flew on from Pittsburgh to New York.

Market Moves Slightly Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market moved a trifle higher early this afternoon in slow trading.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .20 to 208.20 with the industrials down .20, the rails up .20 and the utilities up .30.

Key stocks showed narrow changes for the most part, few going as much as a point or so either way.

The news background continued uncertain. While employment conditions improved slightly in September there was a slight weakening in consumer buying.

Monday—Goldfine's 70th birthday—three court-appointed psychiatrists supported the defense contention. U. S. Dist. Judge George C. Sweeney said he would hear the alienists' report Wednesday.

During the brief proceedings Goldfine sat motionless and apparently inattentive. A marshal escorted him back to St. Elizabeth's Hospital where he underwent psychiatric tests last week.

Bank Personnel Locked in Room

Two unidentified men, armed with revolvers, robbed the Scioto Bank at Commercial Point at noon today.

The amount of money taken was not determined. Bank personnel were herded into a back room and locked in while the robbers collected the cash.

Miller Beckett, elderly official of the bank, said the men wore suits and ties. He said both had on sunglasses, but appeared to be 45 to 50.

He said one of the men, with about a day's growth of beard, wore a blue suit and weighs about 165 and stands about 5-10.

Beckett described the other man as slightly shorter and lighter than the first and clean shaven. He wore a tan suit.

BANK personnel said the men were driving a 1957 Chevrolet with Ohio registration. The license number was not obtained.

Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff said the men carried a roll of clothesline rope, apparently intending to tie up the bank personnel. However, the employees were locked in the back room.

Beckett told deputies he and the employees were locked in the room about 15 minutes before they could escape and notify the sheriff's department.

partment. Nobody was harmed, he said.

According to Deputy Radcliff, Beckett said it would take some time to determine the amount of money taken.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation was notified immediately. All law enforcement agencies in the area were alerted.

Roadblocks were set up in a wide radius surrounding Commercial Point a few minutes after the robbery was reported.

The same bank was robbed by two men on May 6, 1958. They got away with $3,892. Later two men were indicted for the bank robbery count.

GE Renews Truce Offer

NEW YORK (AP)—The General Electric Co. has urged the striking International Union of Electrical Workers to reconsider GE's truce offer made last week.

Union president James B. Carey insisted he had not received an offer. He accused GE of using a "big lie" technique in making public its truce terms.

Philip D. Moore, GE manager of employee relations, said the company had proposed that the strikers return to work under their expired contract while negotiating a new one.

He said 40 other unions in GE plants are accepting the terms rejected by Carey.

The strike of 70,000 workers at 55 of GE's 165 plants moved into its 10th day with little hope that a meeting of both sides with federal mediators would produce worthwhile results.

Carey told a news conference Monday that the only acceptable truce offer would be one in which the company showed it was willing to go beyond its last offer made on Aug. 30.

BUCYRUS, Ohio (AP) — The struck General Electric Co. lamp works here has resumed production after being closed down since last Tuesday.

Company officials said 48 employees reported for work on the 7 a.m. shift Monday, followed by 50 more who reported for the 3:30 p.m. shift. The first shift normally employs 132 while 81 work on the second shift.

Reds Say Questioner No Match for Nikita

LONDON (AP)—Pravda complained today that interviewer David Susskind tried to push Soviet Premier Khrushchev "to the wall" with provocative questions during their television interview Sunday night.

"It was with dignity and a sense of humor that Nikita Khrushchev put his interviewer into his place," the Soviet Communist party organ said. It was quoted by Moscow radio.

In a dispatch from New York, Pravda said millions of Americans ignored an appeal to switch off their sets and watched the interview "with bated breath."

Navy Orders Secrecy in Tests Of Polaris Submarine Missile

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — why, the only answer was that the firings "will approximate operational conditions by elimination of certain restrictions necessarily imposed to protect populated areas."

The Polaris will have an initial operational range of 1,380 miles. The forthcoming shots are the first designed to boost this to the 1,725-mile range scheduled for an advanced version of the rocket by 1962.

The Navy denies speculation it is clamping secrecy on the submarine shots because it fears adverse publicity in case of failure. Project officials are pushing to have the Polaris system combat-ready in November, but many are concerned because four of the last five submarine-launched Polaris missiles failed.

School Bond Issue To Provide Space

Circleville School District voters will be asked to approve a $550,000 school bond issue on the November 8 ballot.

The issue is to provide classroom space for the already crowded system.

Plans call for the construction of a six-room elementary building on a site along Nicholas Drive, and a 10-room addition to the S. Court St. School and equipment for both.

Yesterday the Circleville Board of Education introduced the details of the bond issue to all Circleville school teachers.

Last May local voters turned down a $1,475,500 bond issue which would have revamped the system. The new issue is to provide needed space only and no changes in the system are involved.

If the issue is approved—a majority is needed—the facilities probably would be ready in 1962.

IT IS planned that the Nicholas Drive school will relieve overcrowded conditions at Atwater, High and Franklin-Mound Schools. The building would have six classrooms, a multipurpose room-cafeteria, and auxiliary rooms so that the building could be expanded at a later date.

The 10-room addition at S. Court St., would complete that building as a neighborhood unit. The rooms probably will be used for part of the 7th and 8th grades, to free space at the High School for the large classes already beginning to move into the top four grades.

The bond issue will necessitate an average 1.357 - mill addition to school district taxes. It is to run for about 22 years. The rate is estimated on the selling of the bonds at 4 per cent interest.

Board members reported that the bond issue will provide rooms for a short period, and that more rooms will be needed in three to five years. This bond issue does not involve replacement of the three old school buildings—High Street, Walnut Street and Franklin Street.

The previous bond issue proposal would have provided for new buildings at Nicholas Drive and High Street, and additions at Atwater, Mound Street and South Court Street, and involved abandonment of the three old structures.

Local Lawyers Form Panel For Judge Bell

A committee endorsing the reelection of Judge James F. Bell to the Supreme Court of Ohio has been organized in Pickaway County.

In announcing the formation of the Bell for Judge Committee, George D. Young, chairman said:

"Since the Supreme Court is responsible to Ohio's 10,000,000 people for the final decision in all problems arising out of the violation of or compliance with the laws of the state, we believe it is the duty of every citizen to make sure that qualified and experienced judges are kept on that court. Judge Bell is such a judge."

Bell, who lives in London with his wife and children is 45. He began his judicial career in 1947 when he was appointed to the Common Pleas Court of Madison County to succeed his father. During his tenure as a common pleas judge he held court in many counties of the state upon assignment by the Chief Justice.

In 1959, Judge Bell was selected by New York University as one of 20 appellate judges from the entire nation to participate in a seminar for state and federal jurists which was conducted by the University in New York City.

"JUDGE Bell has been a judge of the Supreme Court of Ohio for the last six years," said Chairman Young, "and is now seeking reelection. He has contributed much to the administration of justice during his first term and the people of Ohio will do well to continue his experience and ability on the high court of Ohio."

Other local members of the Bell for Judge Committee in Pickaway County are Emmitt L. Crist and Carl C. Leist.

U.N. Force Firm Against Demand it Give up Lumumba

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The United Nations today refused to surrender Patrice Lumumba to the forces of Col. Joseph Mobutu.

The Congolese provisional government had demanded that the U.N. permit arrest of the deposed premier for unauthorized political activities.

Congolese officials threatened a military assault on Lumumba's home if the United Nations refused to permit Lumumba's arrest by 3 p. m. today.

The deadline passed with Lumumba still safely in his residence, with U.N. and Congolese troops standing by.

The United Nations announced Lumumba was under U.N. protection and that he could be arrested only if his parliamentary immunity was lifted by a vote of the Congolese Parliament.

A U.N. statement said political dignitaries of the central government "have enjoyed protection of the U.N. without consideration as to where each stood in the political crisis or in relation to each other."

The U.N. overnight had asked for instructions from Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld, after a threat to seize Lumumba had been voiced by Justin Bomboko, head of the commission of young college graduates appointed by Mobutu to operate the Congo government.

Bomboko said after conferring with U.N. chief Rajeshwar Dayal "we are on the point of resolving the crisis." Bomboko refused to go into detail.

As the deadline passed Col. Mobutu had withdrawn all but a dozen of the bristling cordon of troops which he had thrown around Lumumba's residence Monday. Mobutu himself was conferring with U.N. officials at their headquarters.

Bomboko said earlier the demand for Lumumba's arrest had been approved by President Joseph Kasavubu.

Since his ouster last month Lumumba has been guarded at his residence by Ghanian and Moroccan troops of the U.N. Command.

The Ghanians, whose government backs Lumumba's claim to the premiership, could be expected to put up stiff resistance to any attempt to arrest Lumumba.

The ultimatum was issued Monday night after the fiery ex-premier reiterated his claim to head the government in a surprise tour Sunday of local bars escorted by Ghanian and Moroccan soldiers.

Cries of "Emeri" (savior) greeted Lumumba at many of his stopping places.

"I am taking the power," he declared. "I am ready to die for it. We don't need any foreign soldiers in the Congo."

Mobutu sent 200 of his toughest soldiers to throw a cordon around Lumumba's residence. The troops had orders to prevent anyone from going in or out.

Lumumba shouted defiantly from his balcony, "I am not a prisoner. I am still master." But the Congolese troops turned back several dozen Lumumba supporters with their rifle butts. Later the cordon was reduced to 50 soldiers.

Mobutu repeatedly has accused Ghanian and Guinean elements of the U.N. Command of protecting and supporting Lumumba and has demanded that they be withdrawn.

Baluba tribesmen continued on the warpath in ore-rich Katanga Province which seceded when Lumumba was premier. The tribesmen swept into Mitumba, 150 miles north of the provincial capital of Elisabethville, and killed at least six soldiers in a street battle.

Eight Europeans were found tortured to death in northern Katanga.

War Relics On Display At Pump Show

The Pickaway County Historical Society has announced that an exhibit will be ready and open to the public in time for Pumpkin Show. The new location for the museum is 133 W. Main St., next to the Second National Bank.

Antique guns, war relics and souvenirs, flags, old documents, treaties, old pictures of soldiers and battles, swords, army uniforms of past wars, and related items, will be exhibited. All county residents having such possessions are invited to display them at the museum where they will receive insured care.

The museum will be open to receive and register items on Friday and Saturday, from 1 to 4 p. m.

The women's patriotic organizations of the county will help in setting up the exhibit and in acting as hostesses at the museum. Mrs. Paul Counts of the D.A.R. is general chairman of the new exhibit which is tentatively scheduled to run through November.

For information or for someone to pick up items for display, phone Mrs. Counts at GR 4-5718. Mrs. John Griffith at GR 4-5795, or Mrs. Richard Hedges, YU 3-3871.

Local Woman Tops Contest

Mrs. Donald Miller
Wins New Range

"Autumn Glow" was the name of the cake Mrs. Donald D. Miller, Route 1, baked to walk off with honors and a gas range Friday night at the Veterans Memorial, Ohio Food Show.

The contest, which was sponsored by the Ohio Fuel Gas Company, Super Duper Markets and Ohio Appliances, was held October 4-16.

The contest was open to ladies of central Ohio. Each recipe was screened by the Betty Neutons of Ohio prior to the finals. A winner was selected each evening from the six finalists.

Mrs. Miller prepared a sponge cake, from scratch, with cream filling and chocolate cream frosting alternated between the four layers. She decorated the cake with rolled gum drops to look like bittersweet and used almonds dipped in chocolate for an acorn affect.

In order to determine the winner the cake had to be completed in 85 minutes. But it didn't make Mrs. Miller nervous, she said, because she had made definite plans prior to the contest.

MRS. MILLER is no amateur in this field. She admits that cooking is her specialty and likes to share recipes and ideas. She won a range several years ago at the Ohio State Fair and has been a finalist in pumpkin pie baking at the Pumpkin Show for several years.

Besides cooking and baking, she has other duties with two teen-age children, Don, 17, and Pam, 13, who are both students at Pickaway Twp. School. She also is an advisor of the Pickaway Kitchen Kaperettes. Her husband, Donald, is a farmer in Pickaway Twp.

Short Chubby Little Fellows Rated Best for Space Travel

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Young men are growing taller than they used to but the small chubby fellow may have it over the athletic type when it comes to space.

This was among the ideas tossed out today at the first session of a national conference on "The Anatomy of Manned-Space Operations" here.

The three-day meeting is sponsored by the American Rocket Society.

The conference opened with a session on anthropometry — the science of measuring the human body. At the session, figures were cited to show that the average male 20-24 years old is 68.7 inches tall and weighs 150 pounds. The average man 60-69 years old is 66.8 inches tall and weighs 162 pounds.

Comparative figures for women are: 64 inches and 125 pounds for young women, and 62.2 inches and 146 pounds for those in the 60-69 year bracket.

Just measuring heights and weights is not enough, however, said Stanley M. Garn of the Fels Research Institute at Yellow Springs, Ohio.

"As man goes into space, he said, "the initial premium will at first favor a high, fat-free weight, coupled with superb physical conditioning."

"Thereafter, other considerations may well reign. If we can accept a moderately plump young male, with a lower fat-free weight, there will be a considerable savings in payload, for his oxygen consumption, fluid output and intake and carbon dioxide exhalation will be less.

"Possibly, for a short whirl around our planet, we could let him subsist on fat calories supplemented by a few ounces of sugar.

Tosses Gas in Fire, Boy Burned Seriously

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Two-year-old James Sites threw a partly-filled gasoline can into a fire Monday, and in the resulting explosion and shooting flames he was burned critically over 75 per cent of his body. The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Stites of suburban Kettering, tossed the can into a barbeque pit which his parents were using to burn branches and leaves in their back yard.

What's Wrong with Congress?

One out of 4.5 congressmen might be wrong, yet it is interesting to get answers from 118 members out of 537, the question being, "What's wrong with Congress?"

The U. S. News and World Report undertook the arduous task of ascertaining what 90 representatives and 28 senators think. Here are the big complaints made by congressmen:

Tuesday-to-Thursday club. Three - day work week. Nineteenth century methods. Not enough staff to handle work. Mounting, incessant demands on members. Too many problems from states and cities. Gradual destruction of senate as deliberative body. Short, over - crowded sessions. Lobbyists and pressure groups increasing. Too busy to study legislation.

The average citizen back home cannot get much of a view of Congress through a telescope, but he can certainly judge the voting and attitudes of the national lawmakers by reading a record of the votes. This record weaves an easily understood pattern, in which the constituent can determine with reasonable accuracy whether the above gripes are valid.

From day-to-day newspaper reports the constituent knows whether his congressman is spending an undue amount of attention on real estate investments or junkets in foreign lands or cocktail parties.

What Causes Hangovers? Guess

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — The common cold and the uncommon hangover have one thing in common—science has found no sure quick cure for either.

So far the only real solace available to the victim of either ailment is the realization that if he makes the best of his ordeal it will finally go away.

No one knows when the first human being caught the first common cold, or when the first man came down with an uncommon hangover. But both afflictions have been known throughout recorded history.

There are men who wouldn't give a dime to discover a cure for the common cold who would gladly—at least on some memorable mornings—give a million dollars for a genuine and immediate hangover cure.

In the folklore of drinking there have been as many cures for hangovers as there have been for the hiccups. Everybody has a cure—or has heard of a cure—but none of them really works.

One recommends a copious intake of ice cream the morning after.

Other students of this vital topic advocate such various remedies as vast gulps of hot black coffee, tomato juice, orange juice and honey, a raw egg flavored with tabasco sauce in milk, Turkish baths, pea soup, or long solitary walks.

In Colonial days a more rugged society prescribed a treatment that was also a punishment—flogging and bleeding.

But Leon D. Adams, author, says all these cures have one thing wrong with them—they don't work.

As executive secretary of the Society of Medical Friends of Wine, Adams has gone into this subject extensively, indeed exhaustively.

First, Adams defines what a hangover is. He says it is an upset of the body's chemical balance manifested by "splitting headache, searing thirst, furred tongue, pounding heart, fluttering stomach, terrifying pains, chills shakiness and screaming jitters."

Second, Adams explains what a hangover is caused by. Some imbibers believe it is the result of smoking too much, eating the wrong thing, or because of the juniper juice in the gin or the fusel oil in the whisky.

As a result of his researches, Adams is convinced the only real cause of most real hangovers is too much alcohol.

Thirdly, he denies the possibility—believed in strongly by some drinkers—that a hangover can be prevented by taking vitamin pills or any other medicine the night before at bedtime. If too much alcohol in any form has been consumed, he says, the hangover will follow as the day the night.

Fourthly, Adams says there is the only sensible treatment available at home for a hangover victim.

"Something alkaline to help quiet his roaring stomach, a couple of aspirin tablets to dull his pain, and going to bed are by far the best things to do, he says.

"There is no cure for it except time. Its only preventive is not to drink excessively.

Anybody for a nice cold glass of water?"

Neutrals Must Take Sides

By George Sokolsky

When a man who has attained to Khrushchev's position in life acts the way he did in Paris and the way he is now acting in the United Nations, he is either suffering from some pathological misfortune or he is politically desperate.

By the looks of him, he undoubtedly is of the Eastern European type that, when prosperous, develops diabetes and arteriosclerosis. His current wild temper must be new or Stalin would have had him decapitated.

Stalin never accepted impudence from equals much less from subordinates. The compulsion to drink water constantly is characteristic of dictators. Reports have it that Khrushchev is on a low salt diet such as is usually insisted upon by physicians treating patients who have cardiac difficulties.

The loss of temper is beyond belief under the circumstances. Responsible men cannot afford to be so irresponsible and to risk their own country and its allies as Khrushchev does constantly. Up to a point, his buffoonery is an act but it was the responses of a man who had lost control and lost it pathologically.

On the other hand, Khrushchev does have serious political troubles. Here we shall mention only two:

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — The world won't be the same any more.

That's the one thing which came through clear after three weeks of uproar at the United Nations. That body started in business 15 years ago with 51 nations. Last week it added its 99th.

Those 48 new members include not only neutrals but former colonial territories which are anxious to come abreast of the 20th century in a rush. If they don't get help from this country, they can try Russia.

They can play the two giants off against each other. And each for its own sake will have to do business with them. In these next 15 years the balance of world power may be settled for a century.

It would be nice to think that the neutrals and former colonial nations might team up to keep the two great powers—and later the third great power, Red China—in line, out of a pure regard for the sake of mankind.

More practically they will probably be guided by economic needs and help and military pressure, following a course which nations have always followed—what's in it for me?

Premier Khrushchev is aware of the long struggle ahead. For whatever reason he was still confident over the weekend after demanding much and getting nothing in this session of the United Nations.

"We will win, we will win, he said, and although 'today we, the Socialist states are in a minority tomorrow we prophesy you (the West) will be in the minority. The Communist world right now may be planning adventures undreamed of by the West for Khrushchev warned that unless he gets what he wants in the United Nations "we will rely on our own strength."

In its earlier days the United Nations, relying mainly on the United States, was able to stop Communist ambitions in Iran, Greece, Korea.

Those were the days when this country was ahead in nuclear development. The United States then was indisputably the worlds No. 1 power—financially and militarily, with its enormous industrialization and its monopoly of the atom bomb—but this country and Russia were partners.

Today Russia challenges the world leadership of the United States. The fact that Khrushchev lost every round in the U.N. session this year would indicate the majority opinion of mankind is still on the American side.

The great challenge in these next 15 years is to keep that opinion on the same side. This will almost certainly require new tactics, new strategy, new attitudes in this country, new understandings of other peoples needs.

"At approximately 11 p. m. on the night of October 7, a person or persons unknown, driving what appeared to be a pickup truck hit and killed a black Cocker Spaniel puppy. They did not stop, nor did they slow down."

"The Circleville Police Department was called and they said that there wasn't anything they could do about it, they weren't allowed to shoot them, but they would make a note of it and come out in the morning."

"The local dog warden was called. Apparently he had been asleep—or so something. He just mumbled, "O.K." and hung up.

"No one came. At this point the dog was still alive."

"It is possible that it could not have been kept alive but as it was the poor little dog died in agony, when it was possible that his suffering could have been eased."

"Who's dog was it? Is there a little child somewhere in Circleville, whose dog will not come home? Do those men who were so indifferent to the suffering of a little dog have children with pets of their own?"

"If it had been one of theirs, would it have been allowed to die in agony?"

"And what of the truck? Is this the same truck that can be seen dragging down Court St. almost every day? And will it be a child next time?"

"I think a situation of this nature is disgraceful and should be remedied."

There's Some Bright News On Economy

Drop in Jobless, Increase in Orders Give Reassurance

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—In a welter of disquieting news a few cheerful business items give out a bright light today.

You may have to look hard to find them among the outpouring of generally depressing or caution provoking reports and statistics. But the reassuring ones are there.

Even the unemployment picture looks a little better. This is the knotiest problem in the economy, and is still far from untied.

But the September report shows a drop in the total jobless of more than a quarter million—greater than usual in September, although the total is still staying higher than a year ago and involving a disquieting percentage of the labor force.

Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell takes comfort from the report that employment was the highest for any September. Less optimistic observers note that unemployment usually drops in September because the junior citizens who have been classed as jobless during the summer return to school and thus drop out of the labor force, and because industrial vacations end.

Businessmen take comfort from the report that in August new orders received by manufacturers were higher than in July after falling for two months.

Many retailers report sales picked up in September. Among the chain stores on the plus side compared with last year were: J. J. Newberry, Peoples Drug Stores, Mangel Stores, Aldens, G. C. Murphy and Edison Bros. Stores.

All the earnings reports aren't sad by any means, either.

American Telephone & Telegraph says earnings of its Bell system in the June-August period topped the previous three months and set a record for the summer months.

The Great Atlantic & Pacific food chain reports its profits in the six months ending August 27 were higher than in the 1959 period.

Even the steel industry has a smidgen of good news today. The steelmen have furnished more than their quota of disturbing reports of late. Their mills have been turning out little more than half as much tonnage as they could produce. But while most are still in the doldrums, a few here and there report their customers are putting in new orders, some on a hurry-up basis.

Public Notice A Vital Right

By JAMES E. POLLARD
(Copyright)

A New England weekly newspaper regularly carries cards of appreciation which are somewhat unusual. They are entirely voluntary, of course, and are from recently discharged hospital patients in gratitude for the care and attention they received, particularly from their doctors.

One of these read:
I wish to thank Dr. P. . . . .
G. . . . . for his professional services the many times I was in the hospital for treatment. Also to my niece, Mabel, who so willingly and graciously cared for me both in the hospital and at her home. Also the nurses who came to my bedside with a bit of cheer. May God bless and keep you all.

Estella McF. . . . .
Such notices seem to be quite common in the paper in question. It has been published regularly since 1876 in a coastal summer resort town of 2200 although the paper has a press run of 3200. This indicates a much wider readership than the town population, an important factor in connection with paid newspaper circulation.

Whether local medical societies would approve the widespread use of this kind of voluntary public notice might be in question. But this homely story proves two things: the grateful sincerity of the former patient and the reliance of the public upon the bona fide newspaper to "spread the word." It is no accident that the law not only

Mrs. Jack Benny To Make Rare Appearance on Hubby's Show

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—There was much to do when Gracie Allen retired from show business. Not generally known is the fact that her close friend, Mary Benny, has been virtually retired for almost a decade.

This was disclosed by Jack Benny as he prepared to kick off his 11th and most strenuous season in TV. Hell face it without Mary, except for a brief appearance on his first show next Sunday.

"I needed a scene in which someone would scold me for going on TV every week, Jack explained. "Mary was the only one who could do it, because she is

Guards Issue Call for Toys

The local Ohio National Guard unit again will conduct its drive for Christmas toys for needy children.

Guard spokesmen said toys and clothing will be accepted. Area residents may dispose of unwanted articles by calling the Armory on E. Franklin St., GR 4-4366, or phoning GR 4-2286. Pickups will be made.

All toys collected will be repaired at the armory by guardsmen, then distributed at Christmas time.

M-Sgt. Chester Iery said his unit hopes to start on the project right away in order to have a good supply of toys on hand by Christmas.

Negro in Cabinet Urged by Lodge

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"I would like to see a Negro in the Cabinet; I am for it," Henry Cabot Lodge, Republican vice-presidential nominee, said Sunday.

He was answering a panelist's question on the nationally televised "Face the Nation" program.

Lodge expressed belief that Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the GOP presidential nominee, showed "a much greater sureness of touch" in discussing foreign policy in Friday's TV debate with Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential candidate.

Youth Highlights Program At Monday Club Session

Mrs. Clark Will, president, opened the Monday Club meeting last night with a reading entitled "The Lost Hairpin," by Ellen Goeller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Goller, Jr., when she was in the second grade.

The meeting, which was held in the Trustees Room of Memorial Hall, began with the naming of delegates to the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs Conference at Lancaster October 18. They are Mrs. Ray Davis and Mrs. Robert Adkins. Mrs. Barton Deming and Mrs. Bishop Given are alternates.

An essay and art contest for children, a window display and participation in the Saturday night Sesqui-centennial parade were discussed by the group.

Miss Mary K. May presented a paper entitled "The Embryo Elitist," concerning the child's point of view.

It stated that children under ten and women over seventy speak the truth. They dish it out in no uncertain terms. If you don't want the truth, don't ask them.

If children don't always tell the truth, it isn't because they want to avoid it; it's because they don't know the truthful answer. But if the question requires reasoning and is not too complicated or completely over their heads, their answers show great imagination and considerable logic, she stated. For instance, "What does the saying — a wet blanket mean?" "It's the blanket baby lies on."

By the age of eleven, sometimes even sooner, children usually regard the truth more or less as adults do. They avoid it, and take it apart.

Small children usually tell the facts and all details about older brothers and sisters as this one has. "What does your brother do?" "He's in the airborne division in North Carolina." "Does he write home his experiences?" "Oh, yes." "He sprained his ankle, broke his leg and the last time he jumped, he had to be pushed."

Every minute a child is soaking up information — a new work or thought. Some learning comes through loud and clear while other tidbits are out of focus and don't make sense. The singing of "God Bless America" comes out — "Stand beside her and guide her, with the light through the night from a bulb."

Here's a peek how youngsters would change their parents and all grownups. "I'd make them sweet-tempered and rich"; "I'd change my mother and make her skinny in the right places." A response to the charge that we give our kids a hard time might be our offenses as nothing compared to what we put up with from them. It might be argued that all is fair in love, war and child rearing, stated Miss May.

Personals

Mrs. Frank Barnhill Sr., 1008 N. Court St., has as her guest, her daughter, Mrs. Troy Snyder, former Marguerite Barnhill, Steubenville. Mrs. Snyder will remain for the wedding of her son, Barton Elliott, to Miss Donna Mitchell, Saturday.

Miss Effie Walker, 158 W. Water St., spent the weekend with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Art Walker, Wilmington.

Willing Workers To Meet Thursday

The home of Mrs. Turney Kraft, Route 4, will be the scene of the Willing Workers Class session Thursday.

Variety Sewing Club To Meet Monday

The Variety Sewing Club will hold its meeting at 8 p. Monday in the home of Miss Katharine Bockart, 22 Kingston Ave., Grove City.

Young Adults Observe Political Talk

Presbyterian Young Adults Club gathered for its first meeting of the fall at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Vogel, club co-presidents, Sunday evening, September 25.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Whitmore, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Knecht, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Neason, Mr. William Bills, Miss Linda Wardell and Mr. Gary Winner.

The program was entitled "A Christian and Politics". It brought out that a Christian has an obligation to be active in the government of his country, both by voting and working in the party of one's choice.

Guest speakers were Mr. Ed Wallace, Democrat and Mrs. Darrell Hatfield, Republican candidates for the Ohio House of Representatives from District No. 7. After each gave his qualifications for government office, and discussed the issues of the campaign, Mr. Hatfield and Mr. Wallace answered questions from club members.

The business meeting followed with further improvements for the Presbyterian Church nursery discussed and work schedules set up. The club's program for the year was announced. The next meeting will be a work night for the nursery project at the church, Sunday evening, October 23.

The men of the Young Adults Club will have a car wash in the rear of Maders Funeral Home from 9-3 p. m. Saturday, October 15. The club women will hold a Bake Sale at Sears store Saturday, November 12. Both affairs proceeds will go to refurbishing the church nursery.

The evening was concluded with refreshments served by the co-hostesses Mrs. Ron Knecht and Miss Linda Wardell.

'Living Echoes' Circle 6 Theme

"Living Echoes" was the devotional theme Mrs. John A. Evans presented at the First Methodist WSCS Circle No 6 session last night.

The meeting was held in the home of Mrs. Paul Wachs, 832 N. Court St. with 17 members and guests present.

The program entitled "Words That Left Horizons" was presented by Mrs. George H. Adkins assisted by Mrs. Ralph Amey and Miss Dorothy Smedley.

Mrs. Wilson Leist, chairman, conducted the business session at which time the Week of Prayer and self-denial gifts were presented.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses Mrs. Wachs, Mrs. Adkins, Miss Smedley, Mrs. Amey, Mrs. Gerald Doering and Mrs. Clyde Cook, Sr.

Mr. Hutchinson Has Birthday

A surprise birthday party was staged Sunday for James Hutchinson, Stoutsville. The party was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bone, Amanda.

Games were played followed by refreshments.

Those present were Mrs. Russell Hutchinson, mother, and Tom Marty and Donald, Stoutsville; Russell Hutchinson, Jr., Chillicothe; Mr. and Mrs. Fenton Brown and children, Debbie, Tommy and Willie, Circleville; Elmer, brother, who is home on leave from the Navy; and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wynn and daughter Sandy, Columbus.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Quit While You're Ahead, Lady!

DEAR ABBY: I married a man who never came home on time so I went to see his boss and found out his boss was nicer than he was.

I can't explain how it happened ... but I got myself all involved with this man and now we are so in love neither of us can see straight. I want to tell my husband and get it over with. My husband's boss says if he tells his wife, it would kill her. We have children and so do they, but I can't live like this any more. Isn't it more honorable to bring it all out in the open and take the consequences? Or must we hide our love the rest of our lives?

LIVING A LIE
DEAR ABBY: There is nothing "honorable about breaking up your home and asking a married man to break up his. Stop seeing this man. If possible get your husband to change jobs and move far, far away. Out of sight, out of mind.

DEAR ABBY: I am 12 and afraid of the dark. I vision horrible monsters and ghosts when I lie in bed at night. I am actually scared stiff. Miss Abby, am I being stupid and babyish or can this be cured? I can't talk to my parents about it. They tease me.

AFRAID OF THE DARK

DEAR ABBY: You are neither babish nor stupid. Ask your mother to put a dim night-light in your bedroom. Many adults with the same problem have solved it this way.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have many friends who know something about art. I know nothing about it, but I know what I like. When we are shown a painting that looks like great blobs of nothing, I frankly admit I don't understand it. My husband says I should pretend I understand it and remain silent, because its better to be thought a fool than to open your mouth and remove all doubt. Whats your opinion?

TOO HONEST
DEAR TOO: Your husband is wrong. People who KNOW art are seldom deceived by people who don't, but pretend they do. There is no shame in not knowing—just in refusing to learn. Why not look into an art appreciation course?

DEAR ABBY: The problem I read in your column concerning middle-aged women using too much make-up is a common one. My mother had that problem. It was corrected, however, when she went to her eye doctor and discovered she needed bifocals.

WSCS Schedules Smorgasbord

Hedges Chapel WSCS staged its October meeting at the church Thursday.

Grace Dresbach, president, and Marcella Dresbach, devotional leader, opened the meeting. A report concerning "Christian Social Concern" was presented by Elaine Winters. Mrs. Cromley read a note of thanks.

Comments on the recent seminar at Amanda were made by Alice Weaver, Kathryn Reber and Grace Dresbach.

It was announced that members of the MYF would hold a hayride and wiener roast party for the children's Home November 6. Members voted to hold the annual smorgasbord November 17. Elaine Winters reported that a new Sunday school class was organized in the church. Members voted to remodel the kitchen.

The session ended with a program and worship service presented by Geneva Thomas and Donna Fosnaugh.

VFW Auxiliary Stages Party at PC Home

Junior Women's Club Fetes Husbands at Hayride

Circleville Junior Women's Club members treated their husbands to a "Harvest-Time Hayride" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wolfe, Tarlton, Thursday evening.

Nineteen couples began the evening by estimating the number of corn kernels in a jug. Winners were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Christy. Everyone then climbed aboard two hay wagons for a hayride through the countryside around Tarlton.

Following the hayride, couples returned to a bonfire near a pond on the grounds of the Earl Wolfe home. Mrs. Marvin Marshall won a corn husking contest and Earl Wolfe won the corn shelling competition.

The committee for the evening consisted of Mrs. Don Vogel, chairman, Mrs. Malcolm Lawrence, Mrs. Robert Hendricks and Mrs. Robert Christy.

In a brief business meeting preceding the hayride work schedules for the club's pumpkin pie booth were given to the members by general chairman, Mrs. Robert Litter. Mrs. Robert Christy, ways and means committee chairman announced that wieners, ham sandwiches, tea, coffee and pumpkin pie will be the menu for the club's Pumpkin Show booth, to be located on the north side of West Main St. The club's Sesquicentennial commemorative glasses also will be sold at the booth.

It was reported that the Get-Out-The-Vote campaign of the Junior Women's Club is being organized by Mrs. Norman Kutler and her committee. Circleville residents will be contacted by a representative of Junior Women's Club and given pertinent information regarding the two parties' candidates and regarding voting generally the week preceding election day November 8.

The club president, Mrs. Richard Pettit, requested the Conservation Department co-chairman, Mrs. Marvin Marshall and Mrs. Earl Weaver, to check into appropriate permanent marker for the tree dedicated to Mrs. Ray Davis, which was planted at Atwater Grammar School September 17.

The club's next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Frank Wirth, 1050 Atwater Ave., Thursday evening November 3. The program is entitled "Arts Take the Foreground", and will feature Mrs. Edwin Bach, Jr. and Mrs. Wayne Griffith as guest speaker.

Bruce Dresbach Player of Week

Bruce Dresbach, a senior tackle for the CHS grid squad, was named "Outstanding Player of the Week" for his work in the Circleville - Wilmington football game here Friday.

The rugged Dresbach plays offensive tackle and last week played a defensive end position for the first time. His best showing Friday was on offense as he accumulated a team high 2.46 grade. His average for offense and defense came out at 2.23.

Coaches said the 178 - pound lineman was consistent in his blocking duties and also worked extra hard in overcoming the newness of his defensive end position.

Coach Carl Benhase said 10 players earned grades of 2.0 or better, including Pat Rooney's 2.16, Danny Moffitt's 2.15 and Alex Cook's 2.14. The coaches said the overall grades were lower than last week, although the offensive showing was better.

Kittens Drop 20-16 Contest

Fyffe and Good
In Scoring Duel

A pass for a touchdown with 58 seconds remaining gave Amanda Clearcreek a 20-16 victory over Circleville's reserve football squad here last night.

The Kittens had rolled to a 16-6 first half lead, but couldn't stem the Amanda tide in the last two quarters. The winning touchdown came on Fullback John Good's pass to John Conrad. The play started on Circleville's 18 and was a desperate fourth down-and-twelve situation.

Amanda Clearcreek had scored a few minutes earlier after recovering a Circleville fumble on the Kittens 24 to narrow the locals' margin to 16-12.

Duke Fyffe displaying speed and power from his fullback position, drove for both Circleville touchdowns in the first half. The freshmen blitzer added four more points by running over both conversions.

THE GAME turned out to be a fullback's show as Amanda's John Good scored both TD's for the Aces, passed for the third and ran for two extra points.

Amanda opened scoring in the first period when Good, a Stoutsville product switched to Amanda by consolidation of the two schools, rambled 34 yards off tackle on the third play from scrimmage. The run for points after was halted.

Circleville came roaring back on the kickoff with Fyffe breaking off his own right side and going all the way to Amanda's 30 before he was halted by the last defender. Bruce Horn, a rapidly improving halfback, ripped off 12 yards and quick - hitting Gary Betts added three more. A few moments later Fyffe went in for the score. The Kitten fullback then pushed CHS in front by making good on his extra points run.

Circleville's second touchdown was set up by Ray Taylor's recovery of an Amanda fumble. Horn broke loose for 20 yards to Amanda's 25 and Betts promptly picked up another first down. A pass interference penalty was called on Amanda on its seventh and Fyffe went in for his second TD two plays later.

The Kitten running ace banked the score with two more points on his conversion smash to give the locals a 16-6 advantage.

With Good running the ball on almost every play, the visitors rolled for four straight first downs before Kitten David Hannahs ended the threat with an intercepted pass on the CHS 24. However, Amanda found new life when the locals lost the ball on a fumble on the next play and the Aces moved on the score.

Amanda regained possession on the kickoff when the ball bounded off a Kitten lineman and the Aces recovered. Good ran for one first down, then found his favorite tackle hole for a 37-yard scamper to Circleville's 12. With only 38 seconds to go and on fourth down, Good spotted Conrad open for his scoring aerial.

Good finished all scoring for the evening by running in the conversion on a third try after the first TIGER practice drills this week will center on preparation for Hillsboro's trip here Friday. It will be Homecoming for CHS which will give an added incentive for a victory.

The Tigers also will be trying to snap a two-game losing streak handed out by Washington C. H. and Wilmington on successive Fridays. The young Tigers, relying heavily on sophomores, hope to iron out some kinks which have cropped up in the last two games.

Hillsboro, losing its last three games to Logan, Franklin Heights and Washington C. H., also will be primed to get back on the win trail. The Indians of Coach Bill Atsals dropped a heartbreaker to Franklin Heights in the final minutes and gave WCH quite a scare before succumbing in the final half Friday.

In the last three games Circleville's defense has outshone its offense. The Bengal defenders have consistently turned back enemy marches, but the offense has failed to click for conclusive touchdown marches.

Browns Prepare For Dallas Game

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Cleveland Browns, idle Sunday, resume practice at League Park today in preparation for their game against the Dallas Cowboys next Sunday afternoon in Dallas.

The Browns defeated the Philadelphia Eagles and Pittsburgh Steelers in their first two starts this season. The Cowboys, a new team in the National Football League, have lost to the Eagles, Steelers and the Washington Redskins.

In spite of their three losses, the Cowboys are a threat with Eddie LeBaron doing the passing. The little quarterback, who formerly was with the Redskins, has been a thorn for the Browns over the years.

Circle D Holds Scratch Doubles

Scratch doubles matches now are under way at Circle "D" Recreation.

Six games are rolled each night consisting of two matches. The season will last 24 weeks.

The point scoring system will be used with one point each game won and one point for total pins for three-game series.

Trophies and prize money will be awarded for high game, high series, high first average and high second average.

Trophies will be donated by Circle "D" Lanes.

two attempts were called back due to penalties.

Coach Jim Lint's improved Kittens almost gained revenge for an earlier 22-0 defeat handed out by Amanda. The costly fumble and bad break on the kickoff in the second half led to the CHS downfall.

The Kittens next scheduled game is October 24 when Lancaster's reserves come here for a 6 p. m. contest.

PIRATE OUTBURST RATTLES YANKS — Here's that costly Gil McDougald error that got the Pirate outburst underway in the second inning of the fifth World Series game in New York. McDougald is retrieving Tony Kubek's throw, which squirted out of his hands, and Smoky Burgess is thus safe at third. Gino Cimoli went home from third, and the error let Don Hoak get clear to second. Then boom! Bill Mazeroski's double sent home two unearned runs.

Odds Shift to Battling Bucs After Third Series Victory

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Casey Stengel said it just right—if you overlook the grammar.

"Well", observed the New York manager Monday after Pittsburgh's 5-2 triumph, "we gotta win the next one or we ain't gonna be playing ball no more."

That's the way the World Series picture was today, the Pirates needing just one more victory to eliminate the Yankees.

After absorbing two terrific shellackings in a row, the battling Bucs bounced back with two victories in the enemy's own ball park to take a 3 to 2 lead in the best-of-seven set.

Just two days ago, the odds-makers were laying 5 to 1 on the Yankees to win the series. Today, they're giving odds of 4 to 1 on the Pirates.

Bob Friend, Pittsburgh's 18-game winner, is Danny Murtaugh's pitching choice for the sixth game Wednesday. Stengel said he would decide later today between Bob Turley, the fast-ball righthander, and Whitey Ford the curve-ball left-hander.

If a seventh game is needed, Murtaugh will call on Vern Law, the only pitcher with two victories in this series. Ford or Turley, the one who doesn't pitch Wednesday, will start the playoff game, provided the Yankees even the series.

Stengel, who only a short time ago was aiming for four straight following Pittsburgh's opening game victory, admittedly had his worries today.

The belief is that Casey has got to go with Ford. Once this summer, Casey had run out of pitchers and Ford volunteered to pitch with two days rest. The 31-year-old Yankee stopper came through with a 1-0 victory over the Baltimore Orioles.

Ford, in his only start in this series, blanked the Pirates on four hits last Saturday.

Friend pitched last Thursday and was charged with the 16-3 debacle in the second game. He gave up six hits in four innings before he was taken out for a pinch hitter with Pittsburgh trailing 3-1. The strong-armed right-hander, however, struck out six.

Murtaugh said he would start the same lineup if Turley should be the pitcher. Against Ford, Murtaugh will use Hal Smith behind the plate in place of Smoky Burgess.

Harvey Haddix with the help of Elroy Face put the Pirates in a commanding position Monday before 62,753 Yankee Stadium fans. The 35-year-old left-hander had a three-hitter until the seventh when he weakened and gave up singles to Tony Kubek and Hector Lopez.

Face, for the third time in the series, came on and stifled the Yankees the rest of the way.

Art Ditmar, for the second time in the series, was shelled from the mound early. The tall righthander, who was kayoed in the first inning of the opener was knocked out in the second inning this time.

A double by Dick Groat and a single by Bob Clemente scored one in the third, off reliever Luis Arroyo. Pittsburgh's final run came in the ninth off Ryne Duren on Smoky Burgess' single, an error, a wild pitch and Don Hoak's single.

The Yankees scored in the second on a double by Elston Howard and two infield outs. Roger Maris' home run in the third, his second of the series, closed out the Yankee scoring.

Tiny Tigers Meet Ewing Unit Tonight

Circleville's Junior High football squad goes for its third win in three starts here today in a meeting with Thomas Ewing of Lancaster.

The kickoff is set for 6 p. m. on the varsity field. The Tiny Tigers two wins have been over General Sherman of Lancaster.

Kuhn Wins Trophies

Cletus Kuhn Jr., 448 Stella Ave., earned a second place trophy in championship go-kart racing yesterday at Hyde Park in Newark. The young driver also captured three more trophies last week at CBS Raceway in Lancaster.

Bucks Advance To 3rd Among Grid Powers

Ole Miss Again 1st;
Iowa 2nd; Syracuse
Drops to 4th Place

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Three Big Ten teams are among the nine leading challengers for Mississippi No. 1 spot in college football and the oft-repeated contention that the Big Ten plays the toughest schedules of all is in for a test in the next couple of weeks.

Mississippi regained the top place in the voting of the Associated Press panel of 48 newspaper, TV and radio football experts when 1959 national champion Syracuse barely beat a winless but fired up Holy Cross team 15-6.

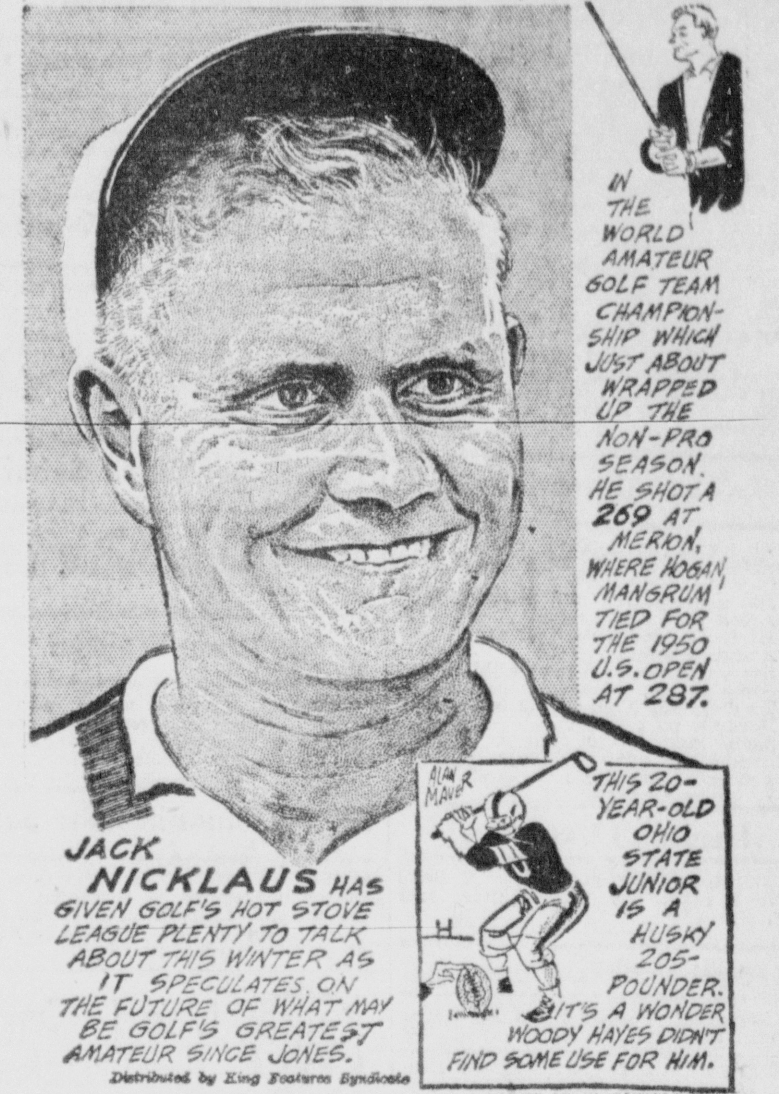

Ole Miss, impressive in its 26-0 victory over Vanderbilt Saturday night, polled 19 of the 48 first place votes and 428 points on a 10-9-8 etc. basis. Iowa, Ohio State and Syracuse followed in that order and monopolized the rest of the first place ballots.

Iowa had 17 firsts and 411 points, Ohio State 8 and 385 and Syracuse 4 and 362. A week ago Syracuse drew 28 of the votes for top place. Minnesota gained 10th place in the balloting.

The top teams with first place votes in parentheses:

1. Mississippi (19)	428
2. Iowa (17)	411
3. Ohio State (8)	385
4. Syracuse (4)	362
5. Navy	218
6. Missouri	176
7. Baylor	131
8. Clemson	102
9. Kansas	99
10. Minnesota	82
11. Texas	68
12. Wisconsin	55
13. Washington	47
14. Michigan State	38
15. UCLA	35
16. Alabama	28
17. Oregon State	25
18. Arizona State	19
19. Georgia Tech	17

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our husband and father, Roy Dale Turner, who passed away Oct. 10, 1960.
His smiling way and pleasant face, Are a pleasure to recall.
He had a kindly word for each And died beloved by all.
Some day we hope to meet him Some day we know not when To clasp his hand in the better land Never to part again.
Sadly missed by widow, Rosalie Turner and daughters, Mrs. Mary Jane Joyce and Mrs. Gloria Cockerell.

District 8 Of Ohio Bar Holds Meeting

Common Pleas Judge William Ammer, Judge William D. Radcliff and Harry Margulis, attorney, attended the meeting of District 8 of the Ohio State Bar Association Saturday at Ironton, O.

Harry B. Reese, Wellston attorney, and Highland County Common Pleas Judge Darrell R. Hottle, Hillsboro, were elected to top ranking positions in the Ohio State Bar Association at Saturday's meeting.

Reese, former Jackson County Prosecutor, was elected an executive committeeman of the Association for a three-year term, starting July 1, 1961. Judge Hottle was named to the O.S.B.A.'s Council of Delegates for a two-year term, starting July 1, 1961. The annual District 8 meeting was sponsored by the Lawrence County Bar Association. Chairman for the event was Lawrence County Common Pleas Judge Warren S. Earhart, Ironton. Presiding over the afternoon and evening sessions was executive committeeman Judge James Collier, Ironton, member of the 4th District Court of Appeals.

Afternoon speakers were R. Theodore Boehm, Columbus, attorney and accountant, and Raymond J. Pellman, Cincinnati, Referee in Bankruptcy in the U. S. District Court of the Southern District.

State Bar Association President Matthew J. Smith, New Philadelphia, addressed the more than 100 in attendance at the evening banquet. He was followed by the Honorable Thomas J. Herbert, judge of the Supreme Court of Ohio and former Ohio governor. His topic was "Appellate Practice in the Supreme Court."

Reese received his law degree from the University of Michigan in 1922. A native of Wellston, Reese is a partner in the firm of Reese and Willard. He is a past District Governor of Rotary International. He is married and the father of two children.

Judge Hottle, former Hillsboro Solicitor, is a 1947 graduate of Western Reserve University Law School, Cleveland. He served four years as Highland County Prosecuting Attorney and was elevated to the common pleas bench in 1955. The 42-year-old father of two children is a past President of the Hillsboro Rotary Club and Exalted Ruler of the Hillsboro B.P.O. Elks Lodge.

District 8 includes the counties of Adams, Brown, Gallia, Highland, Jackson, Lawrence, Pickaway, Pike, Ross, Scioto and Vinton.

Holt to Propose State End Its Cadet Teacher Program

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — State School Supt. E. E. Holt says he expects to recommend to the State Board of Education early next year that Ohio's cadet teacher program be discontinued.

The program began after World War II because of a teacher shortage. It allows persons with two years of college education to teach in elementary schools, and complete their college education during the summer.

The Ohio Education Association last December adopted a resolution calling upon the state board to stop admitting teachers to the cadet program as of June 1961. That would put the program out of existence by 1963.

But Holt, at that time, said the teacher shortage was still a problem and that the cadet program could not be junked in 1961.

Monday, however, he told the board that it appeared the teacher supply was "loosening up" and that he expected to recommend discontinuance of the cadet program.

The board, at its regular monthly meeting, adopted a resolution calling for creation of a committee to study the establishment of "optimum" standards for Ohio's schools. Present law provides only for minimum standards.

Mrs. Jeannette S. Wagner of Chagrin Falls, who introduced the resolution, said optimum standards would serve "as a yardstick for people considering moving into a new school district."

Board President Charlton Myers said he will appoint such a study committee in the near future. Mrs. Wagner recommended the committee be composed of state board members personnel from the department of education and schools, and citizens.

Her resolution also proposed that the committee explore the possibility of setting up standards to classify schools as to their excellence.

Lyndhurst Man Killed

GREENVILLE, Pa. (AP) — Clarence Marshall, 44, of Lyndhurst, Ohio, was killed, and his wife, Anita, seriously injured, when their car collided with a coal truck Monday at an intersection in nearby Jamestown.

The first steam locomotive to run on rails in America was built by John Stevens of Hoboken, N. J., in 1825, and operated on a circular track on his estate.

In other actions, the board:

Granted charters to: Amanda Junior High School, Middletown District; East Junior High School, Tiffin City District; Valley Rogers Junior High School, Youngstown City District; Mentor High School, Mentor Exempted Village District; Perry High School, Perry Local District; Madison High School, Madison Local District; Oak Hills High School, Oak Hills Local District; South Central High School, South Central Local District (Huron County); West Branch High School, West Branch Local District (Mahoning District); Shawnee - New Straitsville High School, Southern Local District (Perry County); Robert A. Taft Junior High School, Plain Twp. Local District (Stark County); Lincolnview High School, Lincolnview Local District (Van Wert County); Crestview High School, Crestview Local District (Van Wert County).

Granted permission to establish a class for slow-learning children in the Monroe (County) Local school district.

Approved a recommendation that a committee be established to study revision of standards in granting teacher certificates in three areas—all types and grades of administrative and supervisory certificates, pupil personnel service certificates and special education certificates.

Declared its intention of approving the transfer of a portion of territory from the Madison Local school district (Richland County) to the city of Mansfield.

Declared its intention of approving the transfer of 16.98 acres of land from the Springfield Local school district (Clark County) to the Springfield City school district.

Declared its intention of approving the transfer of two parcels of land totaling 46.112 acres from the Tuslaw Local school district (Stark County) to the City of Massillon school district.

Approved the applications to submit bond issues to a popular vote from the following school districts: Trenton Local (Butler County) $302,000; Fairbanks Local (Union County) $760,000; West Branch Local (Mahoning, Columbiana, and Portage Counties) $1,150,000; Elian Local (Marion County) $1,248,000; Green Local (Wayne County) $490,000; Mentor Exempted Village (Lake County) $950,000; West Union Local (Adams County) $435,000; Johnsville-New Lebanon Local (Montgomery County) $150,000;

Buckeye Local (Medina County) $597,000; Southern Local (Perry and Hocking Counties) $519,000; River Valley Local (Marion and Morrow Counties) $975,000; Western Reserve Local (Huron and Erie Counties) $468,520.

Reduced the amount of previously approved bond issue for the Stow Local School district (Summit County) from $737,020 to $456,587.

Approved additional payments of state funds to the budgets of the following county boards of education: Butler $2,599.57; Clark $3,598.33; Clermont $13,690.55; Fairfield $3,061.80; Fayette $2,700; Greene $939.24; Hardin $3,166.67; Jackson $2,417.78; Montgomery $5,646.38; Noble $1,527; Stark $2,878.89; Summit $6,477.59; Warren $1,011.59; and Wood $6,477.48.

Approved raising the amount per pupil from $12 to $14 in the formula for approving school transportation costs.

Took final action on revoking the charters of the following schools: Fulda High School in Noble County, and Cumberland-Spencer Local and Valley Local in Guernsey County.
